INSTITUTE FOR DEMOCRACY 必 HIGHER EDUCATION

Agenda

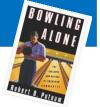

- ✓ Review: the nature of the problem
- ✓ The research and Politics 365.
- Small group discussions:
 What is my campus already doing well?
 What needs to change?

The 1947 Truman Commission

"The principal goals for higher education... are to bring to all people of the Nation... education for a fuller realization of democracy in every phase of living ... and education for the application of creative imagination and trained intelligence to the solution of social problems and to the administration of public affairs ..."

"... working to make a difference in the civic life of our communities and developing the combination of knowledge, skills, values, and motivation to make that difference."

Higher education's purpose

✓ 21st Century careers
 ✓ Personal well-being
 ✓ Social and economic equality
 ✓ Community engagement
 ✓ Civic learning and democratic education

NSLVE NATIONAL STUDY OF LEARNING, VOTING, AND ENGAGEMENT

- The first objective measure of college
- student votingA service to campuses
- A database for research
- 950 institutions
- All states
- 9 million college student records

Campuses at this Institute 2012 Low High Average Voting rate 37.9 58.8 50.5 69.7 Registration rate 59.7 87.6 18-14 year olds (voting) 32.4 53.2 44.5 2014 Low High Average 17.4 Voting rate 88 31.3 Registration rate 13.6 55.3 28.2 18-24 year olds (voting) 6.5 25.4 12.8 Yield

(% of registered students who voted) for 18-24 year-olds: 62%.

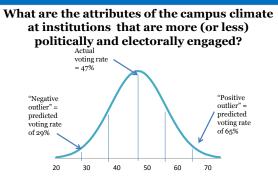

It's not just about voting, it's about who votes.

- 80% of high-income Americans vote, compared with barely 50% of their low-income peers.
- Wealth inequality disproportionately affects people: In 2014, the 2014 poverty rate for Black Americans was 27.2% compared to a national average of 14.9%.
- Median wealth for a member of Congress (2014) = $1.1 mill., compared to $56,355 for the average family (2013)
- 90% of the nation's 40,000 elected officials are white

It's political.

Our Vision: A Democracy that is...

Participatory: people engage in shaping the political and social systems that affect their lives

Equitable and representational: people have an equal opportunity for engagement in social and political systems, with equitable outcomes

Educated and informed: people have equal access to quality public education and information

Effectively governed: government systems are equitable, ethical, transparent, accountable, and collaborative.

Discussion – small groups

- Is your campus facing tensions around this particular presidential election? What are they?
- How engaged are your faculty with students on political • issues, in and beyond the classroom?
- How are decisions made on your campus?
- How "connected" (v. fragmented) are your students?
- Are your student "trained" to discuss hot topics?
- What structures are in place year-round for political discussions and public problem solving?
